Clifford Wayne Weeks, age 73, of Onsted, MI, an incredible husband, father and friend, went home to be with his Lord and his parents on October 30, 2011, after a heroic battle with Parkinson's and Lewy Body Dementia. He is survived by his loving and adoring wife of 49 years, Jeanie and two grateful children and their families: son, Chip (Karen) Weeks and their daughter Kailea Weeks and his daughter, Melinda and her children, Christian, Carl and Erin Gieseke. Also considered a son is a previous exchange student, Tito (Missy) Obagi. Wayne also leaves behind two brothers, Delwood (Patricia) Weeks and Ronald (Barbara) Weeks both of Canada, two brothers-in-law Stephen (Connie) Wills and James (Ann) Wills, a sister-in-law Cindy (Kevin) Wilson and a mother-in-law Wanda (Bill) Saylor, all of whom admired Wayne's gentle strength and wisdom. He will also be missed my nieces and nephews, too many to name. Originally from Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Wayne moved his family to Ohio where he earned his doctorate at Kent State University. He later taught business classes at Western Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University and Spring Arbor College. He was also very dedicated to God and his local church, serving on many boards and was one of the founders of Kalamazoo First Assembly Christian School. Upon retirement, Wayne and Jeanie spent four years serving as missionaries at Christian Academy of Guatemala in Central America. Calling hours will be at Bethany Assembly of God in Adrian, MI, on Saturday, November 5, 2011, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM with Wayne's Celebration of Life service held afterwards. Special thanks to many friends, but especially those who helped care for Wayne during his illness. They include Don Kortas, Bev Lambkin, Heather Dufour and many others from Great Lakes Caring Hospice. During this time we have realized how much it has meant to have a loving family, caring friends and most of all our living faith. These blessings have been our strength and help during our struggle. You may send your condolences to the family at: www.pursefuneralhome.com The family is requesting that donations be made to Christian Academy of Guatemala Section 4347/GUA, 7801 N.W. 37th St. Miami, FL 33166-6559
